Morning Prayer is celebrated each day at 8.45am. Father Oliver keeps office hours at regular points during the week. Please contact the parish office if you wish to arrange a pastoral visit, or if you wish to book a baptism or a wedding. Confessions are heard by appointment.

This week, please pray for:
- Sunday For our congregations, and all who have come to All Saints’ this last week.
- Monday For our Director of Music, Jem Lowther, & Asst Organist, Laurence Caldecote.
- Tuesday For our choristers, and for Haiden Battison (head boy) & Georgi Davies (head girl)
- Wednesday For our lay clerks and choral scholars, and for Matthew Foster our Organ Scholar.
- Thursday For the Friends of All Saints’ Music, and Northamptonshire Choral Foundation.
- Friday For the Cathedral Church of Ss. Peter, Paul and Andrew at Peterborough, for Dean Chris Dalliston and his staff.
- Saturday For the Archdeacon of Northampton and for all the staff of the Diocesan Offices who support parishes.
Thank you to all who attended Stewardship Sunday. Today is RESPONSE SUNDAY, the day upon which we asked for responses to arrive back with us. Please pass your pledge form with the Offertory Plate.

For some time, the PCC has debated removing some of the pews at the back of the Nave so that we can, internally, walk around the church. Thank you to all who have passed on their views.

We’ll celebrate Harvest Thanksgiving this year on Sunday October 14th, followed by lunch in the Cheyne Walk Club. Please have a word with Tom Brown-Flowers if you’d like to book. We’ll also hold another produce collection & auction in aid of the Hope Centre. Their need is fairly dire at the present time, so please start stock-piling for them. Thank you for your generosity.

This year’s Crown Courts Service for the High Sheriff will take place on Thursday, 18th October at 6pm. The preacher will be the Reverend David Walsh, Rector of Ss. Peter & Paul, Kettering.

Our Choirs will be singing Choral Evensong at Leicester Cathedral on Saturday, 20th October. If you’re interested in taking a place on the coach, please have a chat with the Director of Music.

The Lieutenancy are holding a special service to celebrate Northamptonshire’s industry and commerce on St. Crispin’s Day (the Patron Saint of Cobbler’s & Northamptonshire), 25th October at 6pm.

Our Patronal Festival of All Saints falls on Thursday 1st November. A Solemn Mass, at which our choir will be joined by choristers from St. Matthew’s Church, will be celebrated at 7.30pm. The following night, we’ll travel to St. Matthew’s to sing a Solemn Requiem for All Souls’ Day, also at 7.30pm. Father Nicholas and Father Oliver will be repeating their pulpit swap.

Remembrance Sunday and Armistice Day coincide this year, as we mark 100 years since the end of hostilities in World War One. The Remembrance Service begins at 10am, followed by the Act of Remembrance at 10.55am at the War Memorial. In the evening a 5.30pm event at the Albion Brewery will see the rededication of memorials to Phipps and NBC workers who died in conflict. At 6.15pm the Lord Lieutenant will light a Beacon for Peace, alongside Bishop Donald and the NMPAT Concert Band. All are welcome to all these events.

Many will remember the visit that Father Mark Aitken paid us last year, when he invited us to play the ‘Full Five Talents’. We’re travelling to see him at the Royal Foundation of St. Katherine for a quiet day in preparation for Advent on Saturday, 17th November 2018. If you’d like to travel on the (free) coach, please have a word with Alison Mills. Further details available next week.

The leaders of fifteen different Christian organisations in the town centre have this week written to Northampton Borough Council to request changes to the policy over Sunday charges, suggesting two free hours as on other days of the week. Read it on the noticeboard at the back of the nave.
